

1. Full Name
2. Major
3. Second Major or Minor(s)
4. Anticipated Graduation Term (e.g., Spring 2023, Fall 2024).
5. Are you planning to complete any other professional development options during your time as a student, such as NR 220, internship, independent study, study abroad, or on-campus/off-campus employment related to your major?
6. How did you hear about the SUPER program? (select all that apply: peers, advisor, professor, research mentor, website, in-class presentation or introduction, class flyer, other)
7. What is your number one reason for wanting to join the SUPER Program? [50-100 words]
8. How will your experience conducting research in the SUPER program contribute to your undergraduate experience and your personal and professional goals? Please reference your goals and interests as they have developed and stand now, recognizing that your goals may shift over time. [150-200 words]
9. One of the foundations of the SUPER program is student mentee work with a research mentor who applies to have students work with them. A mentee is someone whose professional development is guided by someone with expertise in that area. What are the most important qualities to demonstrate as a good mentee? How will you ensure that you embody these qualities to fill this role professionally, while recognizing you are still learning about research? What can you bring to the partnership with your future mentor? [150-200 words]